EAGER TO SHARE OUR LOVE AND JOY WITH A CHILD

Dear Expectant Parent (s),

Thank you for taking the time to consider us as an adoptive family for your child. We recognize this may be a time filled with many emotions, and while we cannot fully understand your experience, we deeply respect the thoughtful and loving decision you are facing.

Our faith is central to our lives. We believe God has a purpose for each of us, and it is our desire to raise your child in a home rooted in love, faith, and encouragement—helping them grow into who they were created to be.

We are committed to providing a stable, nurturing, and supportive environment. We are surrounded by a strong community of family and friends who will walk alongside us, ensuring your child is deeply loved and cared for. We value education, personal growth, meaningful experiences, and teaching respect for all people.

Though we have not been able to have biological children, we feel strongly that we are called to adoption. It is our belief that we are ALL God's adopted children, being chosen by Him since before our creation. Our decision to adopt a child is an earthly representation of this calling and truly a privilege to experience.

We are ready to welcome a child with open hearts and unwavering, unconditional love. We promise to honor your story and share it with your child, so they always know how deeply they are loved. You will forever be an important part of their life story. We are praying for you as you walk this journey and make the decision that is best for you and your child.

With love and sincere gratitude,

Kris & Holly

Our Story

Kris and Holly's story began with a moment that felt anything but ordinary. At the time, Kris was teaching and Holly was completing her student teaching at the same school. On one particular day—completely unplanned—they both decided to eat lunch in the teacher's lounge.

When Holly walked in, their eyes met. They both glanced away, then looked back again—and in that quiet, unexpected moment, something undeniable began. It truly felt like love at first sight, the kind you can't quite explain but instantly know is real.

Almost 18 years later, that moment has grown into a deep and lasting love. Their journey has been shaped by life's many seasons—career changes, moves, and both joyful and challenging times—but through it all, they have remained side by side. With God at the center of their lives, their marriage has continued to grow stronger with each passing year.

They share a rare kind of love—one rooted in friendship, faith, and a genuine desire to spend each day together. The only thing missing from their story has been a child to share that love with.

It is their greatest hope and prayer to welcome a child into their lives—to grow as a family and to build a life filled with love, faith, laughter, and lasting memories.

Meet Holly

Holly is one of the greatest blessings in my life. She is passionate, intentional, and full of energy—someone who truly makes the most of every moment. Everything she does is done with purpose, and her integrity is one of the qualities I admire most about her.

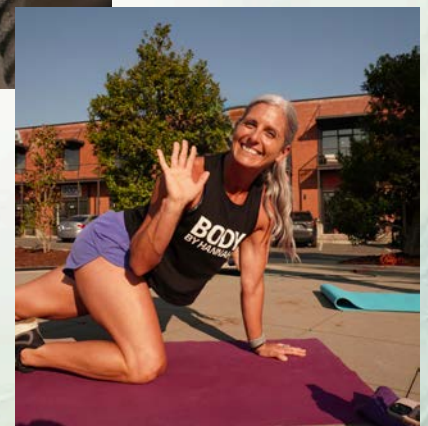

Her faith comes first in her life, and that foundation shapes the way she loves, leads, and lives each day. She is focused, driven, and determined—if she sets her mind to something, she will find a way to accomplish it.

Holly is also incredibly gifted and caring. She serves in our church through music and teaching, and she has a natural ability to connect with and lead others. As a personal trainer, she pours into her clients with encouragement and dedication, and they truly love her for it.

She challenges me daily to be a better man, and I am so grateful for the way she strengthens and supports our life together. Her positivity, strength, and clear sense of boundaries make her both compassionate and steady.

Holly has extensive experience caring for children, and I have no doubt she will be an amazing mother. She has a joyful, magnetic personality that people are naturally drawn to—she's truly one of a kind.

Simply put, Holly is evidence that God loves me and wants me to be happy. I'm totally convinced she was created just for me. I may be biased, but I cannot imagine a better person to love and raise a child.

Meet Kris

Kris is truly one of the most incredible people I have ever known. He is my best friend, my soulmate, and the greatest blessing in my life. He leads our home with faith, integrity, and love, and I am so grateful that God brought us together—there is no doubt He was intentional when He created Kris.

Kris has a genuine servant's heart. He is kind, compassionate, soft-hearted, and full of joy. He loves deeply and selflessly, and his relationship with the Lord is the most beautiful part of who he is. It shapes the way he loves, leads, and lives each day.

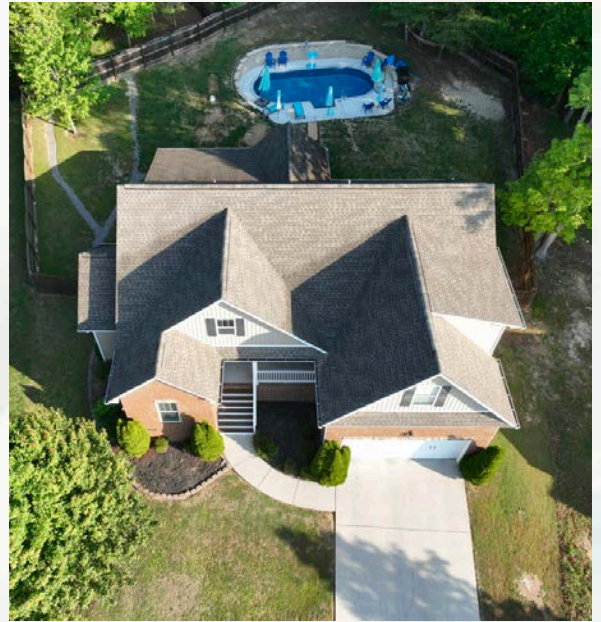

He is always striving to grow—whether as a man, husband, son, dog dad, or follower of Christ. Kris enjoys music, reading, listening to podcasts, journaling, and making people laugh with his dad jokes. Some of our favorite moments are the simple ones we spend together, whether that's time with our dogs or even something as small as him driving me to work just to have a few extra minutes side by side. He is my biggest supporter and is always there for me in every way.

Kris is so excited to become a dad, and I know he will embrace that role with so much love and purpose. He looks forward to teaching our child about the Bible and helping them understand just how deeply they are loved by Jesus. Watching the way he loves me and cares for our dogs gives me complete confidence that he will be an amazing father.

I truly cannot wait to see him step into fatherhood—it is something he was made for.

Our Loving Home

Our home is centered on faith, love, and gratitude. It is a place where we pray, grow, and live with intention—and we look forward to filling it with the joy and blessing of a child God brings into our lives.

Our home is a 2,400-square-foot place in a warm, family-filled neighborhood in Cleveland, Tennessee. We see it as a gift from God—more space than we need right now, but beautifully prepared for a child to grow, play, and belong.

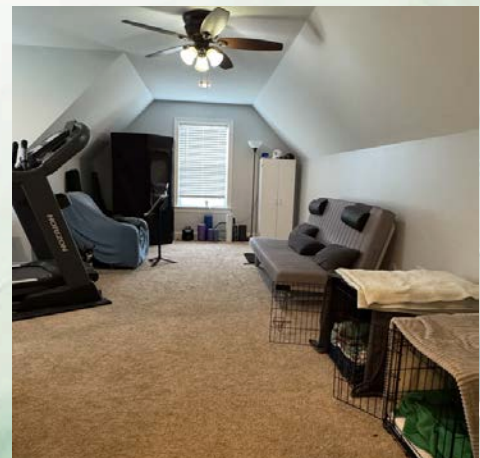

In our backyard, we have an in-ground pool and plenty of open space for play, exploration, and making memories that last a lifetime.

Our Neighborhood

Our neighborhood is full of children and life, offering opportunities for friendship, laughter, and community right outside our door. Whether it is playing pickleball with the neighbors or having hot chocolate surrounded by Christmas lights, our neighborhood is a dream place to raise a child. We live very close to a park and walking area with a playground that we visit as well.

Our Support System

We truly believe it takes a village to raise a child, and we are incredibly blessed with a strong one. We are surrounded by loving family, friends, and a supportive community who are always ready to help.

Most of our extended family lives in the same town as we do, making support easily accessible. Our church family is a central part of our lives. We are supported by a faith community that shares our values. Our church has an amazing children ministry that will be part of our extended support.

Holly works in a family-friendly environment where children are often present, and care is shared among a close-knit team. Kris has a flexible schedule and the ability to work remotely, allowing him to be available as needed. We also have the support of several close friends who are willing to provide support of any kind if needed.

Your child will be surrounded by a strong, loving, and dependable support system every day.

Our Fur Babies

Our home is filled with love and laughter thanks to our four adorable, playful pups—each with a personality all their own.

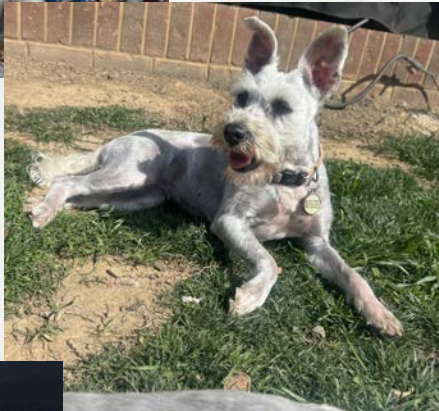

Lily, our five-year-old white miniature schnauzer, is the nurturing “momma” of the group, always eager to greet everyone with kisses and snuggles.

Zoey, a three-year-old white miniature schnauzer, brings endless energy with her love for fetch and chasing birds and squirrels in the backyard.

Jasmine, our one-year-old chihuahua mix, is a sweet little redhead with a big appetite and an even bigger love for cuddling, especially with her mom.

Poppy, also one, is a gentle and shy chihuahua mix who enjoys quiet moments playing with her stuffed animals or soaking up the sun.

Together, they bring so much joy into our home and are already so excited to welcome a new sibling. Each of them is gentle, loving, and wonderful with children, making our home an even warmer place to grow.

Our Interests & Passions

We are passionate about living an active, healthy life and truly enjoy spending time together.

Whether we're working out, swimming in our pool, kayaking, hiking, walking, or simply being outside in the sunshine, we love making the most of each day. We also enjoy playing sports, joining neighbors for pickleball, and spending plenty of time playing with our dogs.

Some of our favorite moments are the simple ones—relaxing together with a movie or watching sports after a full day. We also love to travel, explore new places, experience different cultures, and create lasting memories. Trips to amusement parks and attending live sporting events are always special to us.

More than anything, we are excited to share this joyful, active, and love-filled life with a child and create meaningful memories together as a family.

With heartfelt gratitude,

Kris & Holly
