

INTRODUCING

Caleb & Heather

hello

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us!

We know this is a confusing and difficult time for you while you are trying to figure out the best option for you and your baby. We hope that you feel supported and loved no matter where you are in your journey. We admire you so much for choosing life and for considering adoption.

We promise to cherish and love your child with our hearts and souls, and to provide a safe, happy home, and a life with every opportunity possible.

Know that we are praying for you and your sweet baby throughout your pregnancy that God will fill you with peace in whatever decision you make.

CALEB & HEATHER

We are Caleb and Heather! We have been married for 13 years. We always dreamed of being parents. We have been blessed with pregnancies, but our babies became angels. Since we dated, we discussed the possibility of adoption before even knowing we would struggle with infertility. Now, after experiencing great loss and experiencing such joy adopting before, we are pursuing it with much love again. We are open to building our family once again by welcoming a child of any race or gender. We are incredibly grateful that we might possibly be blessed with another child.

OUR STORY

We had a mutual friend who repeatedly told us we should meet.

Neither of us were interested in a relationship at the time. One summer, May to be exact, Caleb sent me a friend request on facebook. He said I "looked familiar". He later admitted that was a pick up line haha. He was leaving for a trip, but asked if we could meet when he returned. A couple weeks later we went on our first date. A couple more, and we knew we would get married. We were officially engaged a few months later. The rest is history.

TOGETHER

We love being around each other and doing everything together. We enjoy traveling, trying new things, and making life memories. The beach and the mountains are two of our favorite places to go. Our son and pups go everywhere with us. We travel and do things as a family unit.

OUR HOME

This is our home. We have 10 acres of land. There is plenty of space for children to run and play, and Caleb plans to build a playhouse in the backyard.

about Caleb

BY HEATHER

Caleb is the most kind hearted man I have ever known. He is incredibly generous and has an amazing instinct to help people. Caleb's grandfather was a very integral part of his life and helped raise him. He was a father figure to Caleb. He was a minister as well and this influence in his life, along with the calling of God, helped form Caleb into the man he is today.

After Caleb graduated high school, he attended college majoring in communications. He is very smart and the hardest working person I've ever met. He succeeds at any goal he sets for himself.

He is really multi-talented. He is an excellent golfer, wood craftsman, and fisherman. I really can't think of anything he isn't good at. I know that when our children are old enough, he will share these experiences with them.

The best thing about Caleb is how he is a dad to our son. He is always so excited to spend time with him and teach him new things. He is a wonderful father. It has been a joy watching him become a dad.

about Heather

BY CALEB

Heather is an extraordinary mother because of her deep kindness, tender heart, and unwavering selflessness. She has an innate ability to put others before herself, always ensuring that those around her feel loved, supported, and valued. Her gentle nature has created an environment of warmth and security for our little boy. She has a heart full of compassion, always seeking to understand and nurture those in her care, making her perfectly suitable for the lifelong role of motherhood. As a dedicated teacher, she spent her career shaping young minds, pouring patience, wisdom, and encouragement into other people's children, and still has a relationship with many of them. Her ability to educate, guide, and inspire is even more profound with our son. I know she will instill in our children the values of empathy, resilience, and integrity, that she so gracefully embodies. The same selflessness that made her an exceptional and loved teacher has made her an even greater mother, as she lovingly invests in our family's growth, happiness, and future.

OUR PUPS

Meet our pups! They go everywhere with us. They are truly a part of our family. They are the most gentle girls and love playing with thier baby brother.

Our oldest puppy is 7. She loves to play ball. She always catches it and never misses a throw.

Our youngest is 4. She loves her stuffed goat. She always has it with her and she will do anything for a treat.

Both girls love car rides and being outside. I love dressing them up for Halloween each year!

OUR PROMISE

More than anything we want you to know that we will love your child unconditionally and nurture him or her to grow up to be the best person they can be. We promise to provide an upbringing in which God is central and values such as generosity, kindness, and respect for others is taught everyday.

We promise to encourage your child's hopes and dreams, and provide the best education possible.

We promise to make a lifetime of memories and experiences for your child.
